

STATE OF NEW YORK

9934--A

IN SENATE

April 16, 2026

Introduced by Sen. GIANARIS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Internet and Technology -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to prohibiting the use of stealth crawlers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new article 48 to read as follows:

ARTICLE 48

NEW YORK STEALTH CRAWLER PROHIBITION ACT

Section 1750. Short title.

1751. Definitions.

1752. Stealth crawler disclosure.

1753. Stealth crawler prohibition.

1754. Enforcement.

1755. Severability.

§ 1750. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as the "New York stealth crawler prohibition act".

§ 1751. Definitions. As used in this article, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

1. "Crawler" means software that retrieves, scans, indexes, scrapes or otherwise accesses a website or other internet source, including but not limited to an online crawler, spider, fetcher, client, bot, user agent, AI agent or equivalent tool.

2. "Covered news source" means the website or any other relevant source of any print, television, radio, network, cable, satellite or digital publication or service which:

(a) performs a public-information function comparable to that traditionally served by journalism organizations, such as newspapers, broadcasters, magazines and other periodical publications;

(b) makes a substantial expenditure of labor, skill, and money to create, edit, produce and distribute content including by engaging indi-

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD15525-02-6

1 viduals to create, edit, produce and distribute original text, audio,
2 photo, illustrative or video content concerning matters or topics of 3 interest or use to members of the public through activities such as
4 observation, video or audio recording events, interviews, research,
5 testing and analysis;

6 (c) publishes new content or updates its content on at least a monthly
7 basis and has a process for error correction and clarification; and

8 (d) has at least one thousand monthly active viewers, listeners, users
9 or subscribers in New York.

10 3. "Journalism provider" means any person that owns one or more
11 covered news sources.

12 4. "Operator" means any individual, partnership, association, firm, or 13 business entity, or any member, affiliate, subsidiary or beneficial
14 owner thereof.

15 5. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, trust,
16 estate, co-operative, association, government or governmental subdivi-
17 sion, agency or other entity.

18 6. "Service provider" means an entity offering the transmission, rout-
19 ing or providing of connections for broadcast or digital online communi-
20 cations, between or among points specified or selected by a viewer,
21 listener, user or subscriber, of material of such user's choosing, with-
22 out modification to the content of the material as sent or received,
23 including an entity that provides internet access services.

24 7. "Stealth crawler" means a crawler that does not comply with section
25 seventeen hundred fifty-two of this article.

26 § 1752. Stealth crawler disclosure. A crawler that accesses a covered 27 news source shall disclose its identity and purpose at the time or 28 before it accesses the covered news source, including by:

29 (a) identifying itself via a valid and accurate user-agent string,
30 which shall state the identity of any software product making the 31 request, the version of such software product and the identity of the 32 company behind such software product; and

33 (b) disclosing the specific nature and purpose of such crawler, which 34 shall include all uses and purposes that the content of the covered news
35 source could be used for, at the time access is requested and in a
36 format that the journalism provider can access.

37 § 1753. Stealth crawler prohibition. It shall be a violation of this 38 article for any operator to deploy a stealth crawler in a manner that 39 would damage, impair or burden the operation of a covered news source or 40 otherwise cause a news source economic harm.

41 § 1754. Enforcement. 1. Whenever the attorney general shall believe 42 from evidence satisfactory to them that an operator has engaged in or is 43 about to engage in any of the acts or practices stated to be unlawful in 44 this article, they may bring an action in the name and on behalf of the 45 people of the state of New York to enjoin an operator from continuing 46 such unlawful acts or practices, and may seek civil penalties of up to 47 fifteen thousand dollars per day for each violation. If it shall appear 48 to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has 49 violated this article, no proof shall be required that any person has
50 been injured thereby. In such action preliminary relief may be granted
51 under article sixty-three of the civil practice law and rules.

52 2. (a) Pursuant to subdivision (c) of section thirty-one hundred two
53 of the civil practice law and rules, a journalism provider may request
54 the clerk of the supreme court, or a judge where there is no clerk, to 55 issue a subpoena prior to the institution of an action, to a service
56 provider for identification of an alleged violator.

1 (b) The clerk, or the judge where there is no clerk, shall within a
2 reasonable period of time issue and sign the proposed subpoena and
3 return it to the journalism provider for delivery to the service provid-
4 er.

5 (c) The subpoena shall authorize and order the service provider
6 receiving such subpoena to expeditiously disclose to the journalism
7 provider information sufficient to identify the alleged violator to the 8 extent such information is available to such service provider.

9 (d) A subpoena issued under this section shall include a provision
10 requiring the preservation of any relevant evidence in the possession of 11 the service provider.

12 § 1755. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or 13 part of this article shall be adjudged by any court of competent juris-
14 isdiction to be invalid and after exhaustion of all further judicial 15 review, the judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remain-
16 der thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause,
17 sentence, paragraph, section or part of this act directly involved in 18 the controversy in which the judgment shall have been rendered.

19 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 20 have become a law.